CAMPFIRE

it's 7am and the letters I send won't follow you home it's too late to go

I waited all summer to get to you campfire outside we fell and kissed there were only few words I said to you
sun shade, this lake one to cherish

Delorean, saw your name in sand Delorean, make me understand serene clear water all set for you sapphire in your eyes made this turn bliss there were only few things I knew from you Sunset, undressed, your name perished

PINEWOOD PARKWAYS

we all see ghosts upon these empty roads the violet glow in the dark on air their toes floating above these stones the silent bloom in the yard no words, no force smoke in front of stores violent hope in the park

our whole lives we've been completely offbeat all dreams will die in this goddamn town so you say

you got it wrong way around and you
only your bones will follow you rest will stay on Pinewood Parkways few weeks ago was it around your home they found something in the backwoods and power lines can't hide the teenage spies the void when we hear someone shoot

SEASON OF B-SIDES

I tried, I tried to find the way home but the way home was never the right for me our team used to scare the neighbours but the neighbours swore the restless are tamed in sleep

alone in the seaside
delayed, decayed
get away, away, away

so tell me where you are
far away, find a way to the start between the shades among the halos the way home was the one that's enough for me those thoughts sent me back through railroads when the mailman brought the photos and scent of leaves

AUSTRALIA (DON'T EVER LET HER GO)

Delorean, I did best I can, did we Delorean, you said now it's time to leave it's just a year you know I'm back before the snow

don't ever let her go to Australia

Delorean, guess you changed your plan to B the hardest thing to learn is to lose something you've earned

we could smile white teeth and our lame boats or we could smile inside our raincoats do you feel ever scared

GREAT ESCAPE

couldn't explain it right
maybe I should've just seen the signs
'cos you saw exactly what I should see

I'm leaving with feeling this ain't goodbye all I wanted was a great escape wrong things got me to the right place all the blinding lights and dark perfume in the middle you were looking confused

fell in to a spell with someone new I got lost in the colourful view if we meet some day and things have changed it goes so fast but who can last in these days

TUNE OF LETTING GO

and it's so cold in a place you call home and every word that you say has the tune of letting go and every town through the streets the same sound
I held my hopes, you heard your heart

they won't let you go
but sounds are fading
our great surprise revealing

but lights are waiting

your quiet tone, on the shore of our own outside so warm, but the words have the tune of letting go who built up scenes to the play of your dreams

closer closer closer

hide your fear when they are near

through the night my dear and it's so cold

warm enough for me were the words i won't believe and the words she said to me as we dove into the sea all the slopes were green when we ran uphill to see and fell upon our knees the day we got our degrees

on the backseat asking why
they drove away
you chose to stay

generation passed they say the flame won't last don't mind to be outcast so let's just take the chance

and all good things in life are here tonight I'm standing by your side we'll be alright

LIGHST GO LOW

her tears are golden, Caroline a dance by the lake letting loose trees surrounded younger years cones as her souvenirs fate is just another plan she carries all the hope in her hands to the city where the novelties are facing her modesty lights go low, low

carry on, on carry on, carry on until forever, Caroline, never seen a stranger like her getting lost in the modern times washed by the higher tides

a dance by the lake without shoes hands are reaching to the sky swaying into the night

this is another side of our summer sun everyone's undone of being young we're on the run

DECEMBER THEME

do you still need me? they were calling while you sleep I was falling at your feet oh, i should have seen you're on every magazine every centerfold i've seen, December theme

I'm tired of waiting, forget about it still remember me?

with downtown roots and fashion sense reach upper end, high heel pretence guess you live your dream sleeping by the serpentine poolside drinks and low esteem or so it seems

diamond flow was how we used to steal the show don't you, don't you let me down won't you, won't you get me now young and blue It's true we're through

LORRAINE

I can't believe I fell in love with someone new, I've never seen
away
to southern California I'll take the plane

it was near the holidays few days before it started I've spent all my days dreaming, dreaming of something great to come and everything was undone until I felt from toes to head it was in the air

and I came all this way to see you smiling like on Sunday my dreams come true, when we're sleeping, sleeping

oh Lorraine I'll be there soon, on your door this afternoon
